We, the Senior Class of Madison High School, present this annual to the student body.

In the pages that follow, we shall try to show the progress made by our class through the past four years, and the highlights of our many school activities.

We have selected as our motto, "Today we follow; tomorrow we lead." In our school years, as well as the years to come we shall strive to live up to this ideal.

The Alma Mater

Oh, come let us unite in praise,
A song of Alma Mater raise;
We all delight to pass along,
The praise of dear Old Madison:
Years may come and years may go,
The seasons pass, but on we roll;
Lift your voice in word and song,
To sing of dear old Madison.

Dedication

MISS ESTHER SMITH
MR. CHESTER RAMSEY

Who, as our class advisors, never lost confidence in our ability;

Who, as our teachers, displayed patience, tact, and wisdom;

Who, as our friends, remained constantly loyal;

We respectfully dedicate this 1950 edition of the Madisonian.

In Memoriam

This portion of the Madisonian, we the senior class of Madison High School, dedicate to the memory of Roger Beer.

Because of his ability and personality he was active in literary and athletic circles even though he spent so little time with us.

In his passing, we lost an unusually talented student, loyal supporter, and friend.

"There is no death! The leaves may fall,
And flowers may fade and pass away;
They only wait, through wintry hours,
The coming of the May.

"And ever near us, though unseen,
The dear immortal spirits tread
For all the boundless universe
Is Life — there is no dead."

Those thirteen years have been outstanding ones because of his unflinching effort to assist in anything for the improvement of the schools. TO THE FACULTY

This portion of the 1950 edition of the Madisonian we wish to dedicate to the Faculty.

We will be the first to admit that there were times when we seemed unappreciative of the thousand and one times in which you have been of immeasurable help to us. We have seemed unresponsive to the many lessons which you tried so hard to teach us. But seriously, we do appreciate your efforts in our behalf, and we do realize that these lessons will make it ever so much easier for us to live more useful and better lives.

We the Senior Class wish to take this opportunity to say thank you and hope the many friendships we have made will continue through the years.

Senior Adviser

In our Junior year Miss Wiseman was chosen to guide our wandering feet through our remaining years in High School.

Other than advisor to our class she has other duties. She teaches English IV, Latin I, II, and Spanish I, II. Her other activity is the Spanish Club, "Los Comicos Espanoles."

We feel very grateful to Miss Wiseman for her excellent guidance and helpful attention she has given us. We want to thank her for all she has done for us during our years at Madison. We want also to assure her that though we leave, there will always be a place for her in our fond memories of high school days.

Valedictorian and Salutatorian

We, the class of '50" are indeed proud to present the title of Valedictorian to Norman Hughes and the title of Salutatorian to Mary Jo Hunter for receiving the highest honors our school can bestow.

In addition to extending our sincere congratulations, we pray that you will continue to pursue at the colleges of your choice the good study habits and perseverance that enabled you to win these scholastic honors.

Good luck to both of you and we feel sure we will be as proud of you in the future as we are today.

Senior Class History

All aboard! All aboard! Last train leaving on track number "50" for Commencementville. All aboard!

In 1947 we first started on our long and tedious journey. At first all seemed new, but soon we met many friends and felt at home. Business finally got under way with Richard Broach chosen as Engineer; Paul Cashell as Conductor; David Davies as Fireman and Joanne Walker as Brakeman. Mr. Ramsey was the Freshman's advisor. A class party held April 11th was enjoyed by all and a huge success.

In 1948 the train stopped at Sophomoresville. A few passengers had left us, but some new ones were there to take their places. We chose Mr. Larabee to lead the class and solve our problems, Ed Locke as our new Engineer; Norman Hughes as Conductor; Dorothy Sabo as the Fireman and Brakeman. March 10th was the scene of a rollicking class party.

After a short time our train stopped at another portion of our long journey, Juniorsville. This year proved to be one of the most exciting years so far. We had Miss Wiseman as our advisor; Russell Glenn as Engineer; Tony Shag as Conductor; Nancy Moore as Fireman and Mary Jo Hunter as Brakeman. On December 7th and 8th our Junior Play "Out of This World" was held and turned out to be a grand success.

We had the most wonderful time of our lives at the Junior-Senior Prom held at the Richland Recreation Center, May 6. Nels Blocker and his orchestra furnished the music.

At last we have reached the end of our journey. Our train now approaches Commencementville. Yes, the year 1949-50 is an important year. We are all seniors and proud of our achievements. At the first meeting we elected Chet Sprague as Engineer; Norm Walker as Conductor; Connie Smith as Fireman and Donna and Dorothy Schauwecker as Brakemen. We decided that two heads were better than one in this position. Miss Wiseman was once again our advisor.

The Senior Halloween Party, which was held in Stanley Day's barn, was a grand success.

We chose maroon and white for our colors and roses for our flowers. For our graduation gowns the boys chose maroon and the girls white. We selected the Buell-Kraft Studios to take our pictures.

May 19 was the night of the Junior-Senior Prom, a grand and wonderful adventure. Our Senior Class Play "Tish," held May 12 was well liked by all and a great success.

This years Class Day proved to be one of the best ever had. Everyone was kept happy until the end.

Baccalaureate was held May 21, at the First English Lutheran Church. Reverend Carveth P. Mitchell officiated. Commencement was held on May 26, at our Alma Mater.

So we leave having had a wonderful and unforgettable journey, keeping our motto forever in our minds, "Today we follow; tomorrow we lead."

Class Prophecy

Hello Ladies and Gentlemen. This is Madame Elliott your television psychic consultant, looking into her crystal ball and bringing you through station RAMS, the new program "THIS IS YOUR FUTURE." Today we are going to use as subjects for our broadcast the senior class of 1950 and tell you how they will look in 1960.

I look into my crystal ball and see Chester Sprague, the president of the class. Chester will work hard and achieve much, he will be one of the most successful lawyers of his time.

Mary Jo Hunter and Dorothy Sabo, once queens of Madison Hi, Homecoming Queen and May Queen respectively, have established a model school. They present a Beauty Pageant annually, which people from all parts of the world attend.

Russ Glenn and Dick Fletcher are managers of "The City Recreation Center" for teen-agers. They have helped 100% in clearing the slums and ending juvenile delinquency.

The noted Tip Top Beauty Salon is run by none other than Marilyn Wheaton and Donna Uhl, our old classmates. They have established a growing profitable business.

The Wisconsin University has set a new record, never before in the history of the United States has anyone become a dean at the early age of 24. Yes, Norm Hughes has certainly made something of himself and we are proud of him.

Elnathan Hazlett will turn out to be a second Arthur Godfrey. He will revolutionize the radio networks with his corny commercials. But then Elnathan always was good at that.

The class will turn out a couple of men who will turn to religion for their life work. Nelson Booze has achieved his life ambition and is a missionary to Africa. Charles Frye is a Methodist preacher of world renown and is now happily married to Jean.

Class Prophecy

Joyce Hettinger will coach the Ramettes, the famous all girl volleyball team which won the national championship. Their next stop will be the Olympics. Her star player is Bonnie Mottayaw.

Into the field of Dramatics will go Esther Logan and Bob Russ. Esther will be a famous dancer. Her technique of falling to the floor gracefully will never be duplicated. Bob, on the other hand, is the new box office sensation of Idiotic Pictures, Inc. He will be the hero of many a fair damsel. Certainly!

Tim Nedrow will develop his head for business and will become a great success in that field. He will build the first bridge across the Atlantic Ocean. He will have numerous secretaries, among them will be Marilyn Daugherty, Faye Hawks, and Norma Copeland.

Beverly Hunt will become the owner of the store in Lincoln Heights where she worked while she was in high school. Her store has become so large it has crowded the state patrol into another part of the town. One of her many clerks is Bob Brandt.

Nancy Moore after graduating from the University of California, has finally achieved her ambition of becoming a teacher. Among her best students are Dot Davies, Peggy Pryor, and Steven Sprague.

After much planning and preparation, Lloyd Rissler became owner of an exclusive sporting goods store. The Sales Manager of this firm is Kenneth Rice.

Gene Aungst and Dave Davies will join forces and write a book that has been banned in every state in the United States. The title is "Skipping School and Liking It!"

Several girls are successful nurses and are obtaining quite a lot of male patients for the Ram Hill Memorial Hospital which was founded by the great financier Ann Didicher whose many husbands have left her quite wealthy. Some of the girls are: Thomasine Ciraulo, Dorothy and Donna Schauwecker, Connie Smith.

Class Prophecy

In the professional football field will be many of the boys that played for Madison. Some of the great press notices of 1960 will tell about Bruce Armstrong, Norman Walker, Bill Remy and Tony Schag.

Ann Dyson is a happily married housewife and has changed her name to Bosko. She enters cake contests and wins every time. Her special is Banana Cream Cake.

Doris Robinson and Erma Keefer will organize a Taxi company called: "We Drive You Any Place— If You Have Insurance." Some of their drivers are Loretta Pascute, Bonnie Cox, and Angela Lalli.

Mildred Petrovic has become a great cartoonist. Her favorite comic strip is "Sassinov Popokinoff." The story of a Russian Termite.

Eloise Scheier and Elinor Blandi have a private detective business. Their slogan is "You lose, we find, you pay (cash that is). Some of their better known detectives are: Margie Lehnhart, Joan Harry, and Gloria Stahl.

William McKinley, David Brumm, Clifford Betz and Dave Stimens have all turned to the trade of selling brushes. And I foresee that they will hand out quite a line.

Stanley Day is a great fight promoter. Among the men he has made famous are Muscles Hammett, Shorty McLaughlin, Fat Boy Constance, and Daredevil Wilging.

Pedro is the finest dance instructor in the country and it is evident he is doing a roaring business. The name of his establishment is: Pryors SELECT DANCING ACADEMY.

My crystal ball is growing dim and I am afraid that is all I'll be able to prophesy now. But tune in next year at this same station and you will hear about the class of 1951.

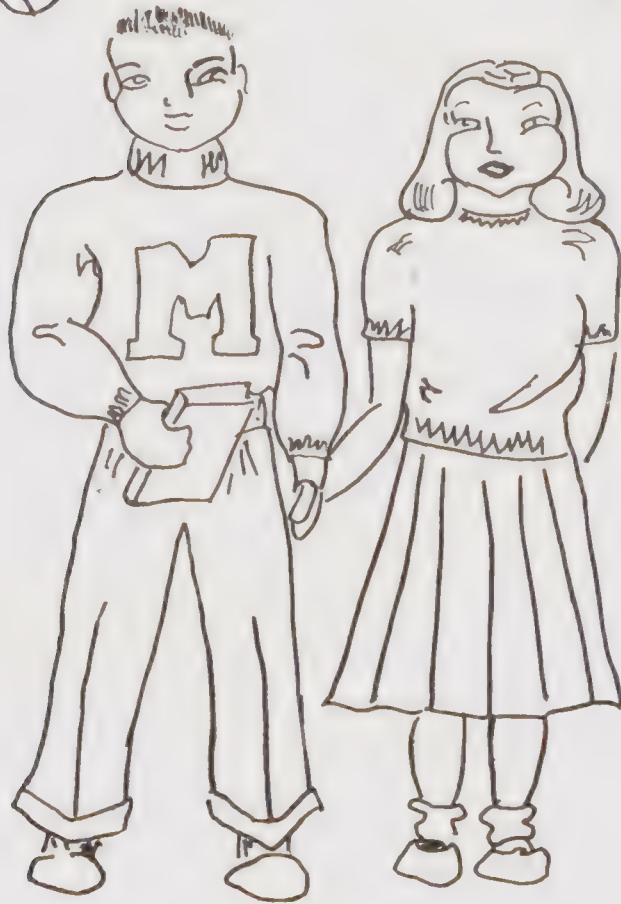

Class Poem

Here we are the class of "50"
Not a prize but pretty nifty
So here I'll give a short review
Of our class and who is who
With Norm Walker let's commence
He has pals and common sense
Chet Sprague is second in the row
He's our president as most of you know
Pryor likes sports and is at them good
We're proud of Pedro and we should
Our football captain Russ Glenn
Is the girls pick of many men
Dave Davies is next on the list
When it comes to girls, he can't resist
Norm Hughes is next, I'll give you a tip
He's popular and also as smart as a whip
We'll talk now of Tony Schag
When it comes to speed he'll always lag
We must admit Tim Nedrow is swell
He's considered to all a friend and a pal
We'll talk of "Armie," Bruce to you
He's a football player and a good one too
For Bob Russ all the girls desire
He's good looking and one to admire
A scholar, a small lad, a friend
This is Paul Cashell to the end.
Mary Jo our football queen
Attended girls state and is really keen
To most boys she's really a date
Yes, Ann Dyson at any rate
Beverly Hunt with the dimpled chin
When she's around the fun begins
With a disposition that's mighty sweet
Erma Keefer just can't be beat
One of the prettiest girls ever seen
Is Dorothy Sabo our May Queen
Ann Didicher, president of G.A.A.
Is lots of fun any time of the day
Margie Lehnhart is smart as a whip
In shorthand class she really has zip
Joyce Elliott, who sings so sweet
From our class she's really a treat
Our twins and treasurer's of the class
Yes, Donna and Dorothy alas
Faye Hawks is classy too
A friend worth having I think don't you?

Class Poem

The life of the party is Donna Uhl
When it comes to giggling she breaks every rule
Next there's Tommy, another chick
With lots of boys she's their pick
Elnathan is head of Visual Ed.
Our noon shows, should more be said?
I'm running low on paper and time
Also running out of rhyme
To hurry along I'll combine a few
Groups, gangs, and buddies, too
Eloise Scheier can dance like a dream
At typing Marilyn Wheaton is on the beam
Angela Lalli is really classy
Marilyn Daughterty is a sweet lassy
At art Milly Petrovic beats them all
A real pal is Gloria Stahl
Mottayaw and Hettinger are good in sports
On basketball or tennis courts
Doris Robinson and Connie Smith
Real friends and fun to be with
Nancy Moore is our Goldilicks
A charming girl is Bonnie Cox
Pascute and Copeland are really prim
Quiet, sweet, tidy and trim
Esther Logan and Joan Harry
Are respectively kind and merry
Rissler and McLaughlin are rather shy
But regarded by all, a grand guy
Bob Brandt this year is new
Our class likes him, yours will too
Fletcher and Remy, two swell guys
When it comes to trouble they take the prize
Considered handsome, Aungst and Frye
We all know the reason why
Booze and Betz are really kind
Are clean in thought, word, and mind
McKinley is our boy — one girl
Stimens has given lots of girls a whirl
Walt Wilging, Stanley Day
Skip Constance, too are all O. K.
Hammett, Brumm and also Rice
Tease alot but we think are nice
This poetry is far from dandy
Blame yours truly, Elinor Blandi
So I'll close with this short phrase
The class will miss their "old school days."

Junior Class History

In 1947, a new group of Freshmen eagerly awaited instructions. They were directed to their home rooms and completed their schedules. After they became a little more acquainted with everything and everyone the class meeting was held. At this meeting, they elected officers. They were as follows: President, Bill Briggs; Vice President, Paul Gottfried; Secretary, Shirley Bell, and Treasurer, Dean Smith. Their advisor was Mr. Ramsey. The Freshman party was held April 9.

They were now back as Sophomores. For the years of '48 and '49 their officers were: President, Ed Chelski; Vice President, Raymond Enderle; Secretary, June Barnhill, and Treasurer, Paul Gottfried. Their advisor was again Mr. Ramsey. The annual party was a success.

The officers for '50 were as follows: President, Raymond Enderle; Vice President, Ed Chelski; Secretary, Jim Marfia, and Treasurer, Paul Gottfried. Their chosen advisor was Mr. Ramsey. This year the Junior class again sponsored the annual prom. The Junior play "Times For Elizabeth" was held November 18. Everyone agreed that it was a success.

Sophomore Class History

In 1948 a scared and bewildered group of Freshmen thronged the halls of Madison High School.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Ewing and Mrs. Kissel, their home room teachers, they filled out their schedules and managed to get to some of the right classes.

Withina few weeks they knew their way around and acted as if they had been here for years.

After becoming acquainted with all their classmates, the first meeting was held. Mrs. Kissel was appointed class advisor for the group. The class chose William Fletcher for their president. Other offices were filled by Ward Patterson, Vice President; George Stevens, Secretary, and Shirley Conroy, Treasurer.

The Freshman party which was held during the year proved to be a great success.

The next year when the class held its first meeting, George Stevens was elected President; Leland Strang, Vice President; John Troupe, Secretary, and Dean Stoffer, Treasurer. Mrs. Kissel was again appointed advisor.

The outstanding date of the year was the Sophomore party, at which everyone had a wonderful time.

The Senior Class sincerely wishes you lots of luck for your last two years at Madison.

Freshman Class History

On September 13, 1949, the Freshman class entered the halls of Madison High School. As they walked the halls, it was obvious that the next four years would be a new and strange adventure.

As the home room assignments, scheduling, and the meeting of teachers was being completed, they were busy making friends.

Under the leadership of their class advisor, Mr. Dowler, they elected George Peterson to occupy the office of President. Grant Milliron, Ann Durig and Don Norris were elected to the offices of Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, respectively.

The annual freshman party turned out to be a great success.

Early in the school year the members of the Thespians organized, and elected a girl president for the sixth time in as many years. The dramatics club of the school was organized six years ago by Miss Stout and has grown and thrived under her capable direction.

We offer our sincere thanks to her and wish her luck in the future.

Each year in addition to producing their own play the Thespians make a trip to Columbus or Cleveland to see a professional stage play. They have seen such plays as "Lady Winterniess Tan" with Cornelius Otis Skinner and "Harvey" with Frank Fay. This year they hope to go to the Hartman Theater in Columbus to see Breck of Doon.

We offer our sincere thanks to Miss Stout for her understanding and guidance and wish her all the luck in the world in her future work with the Thespians.

Eagerly awaited by all members is the Roman banquet which is held in the original Roman style.

We wish tht Latin Club the best of luck during the coming years of activity.

"Tish"

"TISH" was written by Mary Rinehart. Letitia Carberry, Tish, (Ann Didicher), was a middle-aged spinster, Blunt, outspoken, and entirely lovable. She informed her two boon companions, Lizzie, (Dorothy Sabo), and Aggie, (Nancy Moore), that she was determined to get closer to nature, to "lead the simpler life." So she bought a second-hand car and they started out with Tish doing the driving, but not before Lizzie had wired Tish's young nephew, Charlie Sands, (Norm Hughes), telling him of his aunt's latest project and advising him as to their destination.

Charlie flew down to the Southwest in his plane and stopped off at "The Eagle Hotel." The hotel was owned and operated by Ellen Leightan, (Ann Dyson), and located somewhere near the Mexican border. Lizzie and Aggie came limping into the hotel shortly after Charlie arrived. Where was Tish? She was sitting alone in her car, determined to repair it, when the car started off with her unexpectedly, leaving Aggie and Lizzie alone on the roadside. Tish arrived in due time, after having driven through the plate glass window of Luther Hopkins, (Dave Davies), across the road. He made a stormy entrance and demanded damages. Tish refused to pay him anything and incurred his enmity and the battle was on.

Events moved fast. When the hotel safe was looted Tish was certain that she knew where the stolen money was hidden and dragged Aggie out with her to start a search. The result of that search was that Tish took Aggie up in the air in Charlie's plane, lost control of the plane, dropped Aggie off on the roof of the barn and then soared upward again! The following day the newspaper headlines proclaimed that a lone female spy had been sighted flying over Mexico and Tish became the center of international complications.

There was great suspense and excitement right up until the final curtain. Whether she was trying to help Aggie recover her lost teeth or striving desperately to straighten out the tangled romances, Tish got everybody around her into and out of more jams than you could shake a stick at.

Charita (Tommy Ciraulo) was the Mexican maid. Sheriff Lew Pike (Bruce Armstrong) assumed an air of bravado to support his position as Sheriff. Callie Hojkins (Bonnie Mottayaw) was courageous and self-reliant. She was extremely loyal to her friends. Bettina Trent (Elinor Blandi) was of a determined nature. Bettina was easily upset and inclined to be stubborn. Wesley Andrews (Chet Sprague) was of athletic appearance, and had a frank and wholesome manner of speaking. Denby Grimes (Russ Glenn), who was a movie director, was prepossessing in manner and spoke with a frank and engaging directness. One of the movie actresses in his studio is Dorice Gaylord (Joyce Elliott). Although Dorice and Denby are the real crooks of the play, they are the most unsuspected.

This uproarious comedy rocked the audiences with such howls of laughter as haven't rung through the school in years. "TISH" was a huge success and well liked by all.

"Time for Elizabeth"

"TIME FOR ELIZABETH" was a side splitting three act comedy, which the Junior class of Madison High School presented on Friday, November 18, under the direction of Miss Eileen Stout.

So new that it hit Broadway, only this spring, TIME FOR ELIZABETH gave the Juniors a chance at rollicking comedy of the big time drive.

Heading the cast was Bill Briggs as the harried, middle-aged business executive, Ed Davis, who saw that "Time for Elizabeth" is the only way to solve his problems. Kay Davis, his understanding wife, portrayed by Muriel Beer, entered into his idea reluctantly but loyally.

Walter P. Schaeffer, John Snyder, was the most raucous boss a man could have. Worse yet, he is Ed's boss, and what a driver! That was, until he, too, found time for Elizabeth.

From the sunny Southland, Harrison Oglethorpe, Tom Durig, brought dreams of palms and sword fishing to the tired Snowdrift executive. Oglethorpe's been one of the Snowdrift family for sixteen years.

Miss Greene, Annabelle Kragick was the Snowdrift "Tillie the Toiler," the most efficient machine in the organization.

Let's not forget Ed Davis' second headache, the income tax collector, Mr. Robinson, Donald Noble made you think of March 15th.

Lily Schaeffer, the boss' wife, Jean Stimen, should have been back in Brooklyn with the Dodgers!

Cupid whets his arrows as Anne Davis, Ruth Casler, and Richard Coburn, Charles Mowry, added a touch of romance to the plot.

There was Mr. Jasper, Melvin Miller, who sold cemetery plots "with a view," outselling himself with the Davis' and zaney George and Amy Zwilling, Norman Otto and Martha Jane Ewing, who didn't know a club from a spade and so were buried in their own dullness.

Ah! a vamp can liven things up, and Gloria Belt, as Vivian Morgan played post office for keeps.

Wait! let's not overlook an important character who flashed across the stage to enter the Snowdrift paradox. A thrifty Scotchman, Gene Ayers, who, believe it or not, was the first one who could afford time for Elizabeth.

There we are — the play, the characters, the cast and the story. Those who found TIME FOR ELIZABETH will never forget it.

"Holiday"

"Holiday" was written by Philip Barry. The setting was Edward Setons (Elnathan Hazlett) a distinguished business man who had devoted his life to the tireless pursuit of the elusive dollar bill, New York mansion. Julia Seton (Joyce Elliott) was Edward's daughter, a beautiful girl with an easy grace and sophisticated charm. Linda Seaton (Muriel Beer) was rather boyish although she was fresh and intelligent; she seemed rather plain when compared with Julia. Johnny Case (Bill Briggs), was Julia's distraught lover and the plot was woven around his novel idea that he would retire when young and amasse a fortune in his old age.

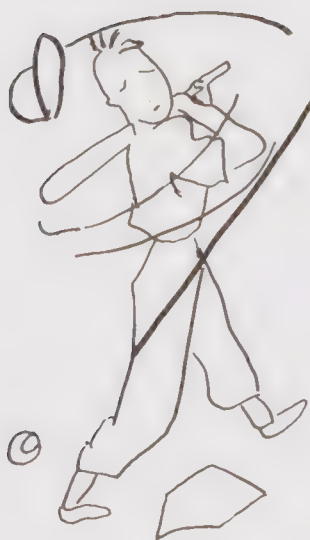

Unfortunately Johnny had no social background, although he had a head for business, he persisted in executing his novel idea. Julia and Edward were disturbed by Johnny's radical impressions and were forced to regard him rather dubiously and yet maintained their social dignity. Linda admired Johnny's idea and the solution of the play's success revolved around this situation. Ned Seton (Paul Cashell) was almost effeminate and lived without attracting too much attention. Ned could not find his niche in life and found pleasure only in a disturbing little habit that he had formed.

Susan Potter (Kay Jesson) was an attractive, smart lady and was very enthusiastic about life. She had a delightful personality and made an ideal mate for Nick Potter (Chester Sprague). Nick was witty, easy going, flambuoyant, the life of the party type. Seton Cram (Tim Nedrow) was a conventional type man with a shrewd understanding of business. Laura Cram (Nancy Moore), who was Nick's wife, looked upon the Seton affairs with much disdain and was unable to enjoy herself.

Henry (Tony Schag was of pleasant appearance and matter. Charles (Stanley Day) was a younger man servant who added pomp to the play. Delia (Beverly Hunt) was a housemaid who aided in producing that air of sophistication that was essential to the play's mood.

Coach Walker

COACH WALKER

Coach Walker began his football career as a player at Lima Central High School where, according to the testimony of his friends, he literally filled the air with passes. He also starred as offensive quarterback on the teams at Bowling Green University, before and after a four year hitch in the U. S. Navy during the recent war.

After a brief career as basketball coach at Shiloh High School, Walker came to Madison two years ago as head football coach.

From the standpoint of games won and lost this years football season could not be called a successful one, and few would envy Mr. Walker his position. But those who are best aware of the true situation were amazed at the fighting spirit Coach Walker was able to instill in a bunch of inexperienced but willing underclassmen. Already the outlook for future teams is very bright. Many positions on the varsity are filled by veterans that have from two to three more years of varsity competition. These future Ram Teams will be able to give a good account of themselves against any kind of competition.

We the Class of "50" feel that Madison High School is indeed fortunate in having such a capable coach to lead its football teams and wish him many more successful years at Madison.

Assistant Coaches

COACH BLAINE DOWLER

Coach Blaine Dowler has been with us two years. Every student has a good word for him, whether it be a reserve football player, varsity basketball player, one of his students. He is a well liked coach as well as teacher, practicing the same hard work policy in his classes as well as on the gridiron, hardwood, or diamond.

Mr. Dowler attended Defiance, Toledo University and Ashland. He was very active in football and basketball, earning four letters in each. After serving in the army he taught at Lodi.

COACH KOPCIAL

Coach Bill Kopcial has been with us since 1939, except for his four years of military service. He graduated from Madison High in 1929, and attended Ashland College, and Ohio State. After graduating from Ohio State he taught five years in Madison Township elementary schools.

Coach Kopcial has coached reserve basketball and football since 1939. The last two years he has been varsity line coach. He believes in fair, hard competition. "Bill" has developed many boys into good athletes, and has taught good sportsmanship.

Booster Club

The Class of "50" wishes you the best of luck with your future teams at Madison.

Vice President	/	/	/	/	/	Russell Remy
Treasurer	/	/	/	/	/	Elmer Desterhaft

The Madison Township Boosters' Club was organized sixteen years ago. Its purpose then was the same as it is now, to help encourage different school activities and athletics. This year under the capable leadership of LaVerne Thursh, the club has continued to work and plan for the welfare of the students.

The Annual Lawn Fete provides the bulk of the funds for the Club's treasury, and with this money the club has purchased football equipment for both the grade and high schools, aided in financing the bleachers, purchased band instruments, and helped out in many other ways.

The students of Madison High are proud of the Club and speaking in behalf of the entire student body, we, the Class of "50" wish to take this opportunity to say thanks to you the friends and fathers of the student body, who have donated so generously of your time and energy, making it possible for us to enjoy these many extra advantages.

Varsity Football

Pedro Pryor, Most Valuable Player

Pedro Pryor was voted the most outstanding varsity football player of the year. He was selected by members of the team at the completion of the season. He was shifted from line to halfback. This was a wise change for Pedro proved to have drive and also made yardage in carrying the ball. He received this trophy at the annual News Journal Banquet.

Lloyd Rissler, Most Valuable Linesman

The Phi Sigma Chi Fraternity of Mansfield presents a Most Valuable Linesman trophy annually to a varsity linesman. The purpose of this award is to try to give recognition to the "forgotten player." This year, Lloyd Rissler was elected by the people attending the games to receive this award. He certainly deserved it, since he played four years of football and showed fighting all the way. Lloyd's position will be hard to replace in "51".

Russell Glenn, Captain

Last year Russell Glenn was chosen to be the "49" captain by his teammates. The team's choice was a wise one. Russ proved the confidence his teammates had in him, in electing him, was well grounded. His spirited play, his ability to inspire his team to greater efforts, and the fact that he was always a potential scoring threat made him valuable, and a great captain.

Russ is probably the last of the Rams to be honored in this fashion, as next year the school is going to adopt a new policy of electing a captain each game.

We the Class of "50" were proud of Russ and will be proud of him again when he romps on the gridiron of the college of his choice.

Varsity Football

RUSSELL GLENN— (Senior)— End

This is Russ's second year on the varsity, and makes the second consecutive letter he has won. He captained and proved to be one of the spark-plugs of the team. Next year he will be difficult to replace.

BRUE ARMSTRONG— Senior— Tackle

Bruce has played football for four years. He has won three varsity letters and one reserve letter. His size and determination will be greatly missed.

NORMAN HUGHES— Senior— Guard and Fullback

Like Bruce he has won three varsity and one reserve letter. Norm was always out-standing on defense, which made him a valuable lineman. His speed permitted him to be placed in the backfield.

EDD LOCKE— Senior— End

Edd was also a two monogram winner, at the halfway mark in the season Edd suffered a broken collarbone, his injury was a serious set-back to the team.

BILL REMY— Senior— Guard

Bill has won two varsity and two reserve letters. Bill also received a serious injury in the form of a broken wrist. He played the bulk of the season with a cast. To us this showed remarkably good spirit and determination.

PEDRO PRYOR— Senior— Guard and Halfback

Pedro has also two varsity and one reserve monograms to his credit. He was without a doubt one of the leading candidates for the out-standing linesman award until he was shifted to halfback in an effort to strengthen the team. From this position he won the most valuable player trophy. We will miss him next year.

NORMAN WALKER— Senior— Tackle

This was Norm's first year as a regular, but he conducted himself like a veteran. Norm's speed made him particularly valuable on offense.

LLOYD RISSLER— Senior— Tackle

Although Lloyd has always been a valuable player, this year his defensive ability permitted him to win the most valuable linesman trophy. Lloyd was also valuable because of the fact that he frequently played practically all other positions on the line.

CHESTER SPRAGUE— Senior— Halfback

This is Chet's first and last year on the varsity. This year he developed very rapidly and even though he was handicapped because of lack of weight, he proved to be one of the better halfbacks in this section of Ohio.

BOB RUSS— Senior— Halfback

Although this year was Bob's first experience at football, he proved himself dependable. Furthermore he showed he had what it takes.

STANLEY DAY— Senior— Halfback

For the previous three years Stan has been recognized as one of our managers. This year however he tried his hand at playing the game, proving himself a real part of the team.

TONY SCHAG— Senior— Tackle

Unfortunately this is Tony's last year as a tackle on our varsity squad. He has won his first letter this year. His size and weight will be missed greatly on next year's line.

WALTER WILGING— Senior— Guard

Walt won his first letter this year. He was a great aid to the team as a defensive guard, and was in there playing at all times. He enjoyed the game when the going was really rough.

DICK FLETCHER— Senior— Guard

Dick was especially known for the spirit which he displayed. A holder of one monogram, he always put forth all he had. He possessed real ability as a guard.

BOB McLAUGHLIN— Senior— Center

Bob held the difficult job as center this year. He had what it called for and handled it very well. He will be missed next year.

ED CHELSKI— Junior— Backfield

Ed has earned two varsity letters. This year he was out most of the season with a bad wrist. But the games that he did play proved Ed to be a wonderful ball player. Next year we'll hear a lot of Ed.

RAY ENDERLE— Junior— Backfield

Ray took over Ed's quarterback spot and despite his meager weight and slight build, Ray has proved to be a very promising ball player. He won his letter this year. And next year he'll be depended upon for good playing.

MARTY KEIPP— Junior— End

When Edd Locke was injured, Marty moved up to first string end. He developed very rapidly and shows promise of being one of the best ends we have had at Madison High.

ROGER MCBRIDE— Junior— Fullback

Roger is another "little boy," as far as appearance is concerned. But on the gridiron, he's the roughest, toughest little defensive fullback that Madison has ever produced. He'll be hard to get past next year.

RICHARD FOX— Junior— Defensive

Dick has played all the line positions on defense. The rougher it is the better he likes it. Next year he'll probably be a very good lineman, both offensive and defensive.

DON SHELDON— LEE STRANG— MELVIN MILLER— Managers

These boys have one of the toughest jobs possible in the game of football, yet receive little or no credit for the task. Our class wishes to thank them for the splendid job they have carried out during the "49" football season.

"M" Association

Row 1: Stanley Day, Norman Hughes, Bruce Armstrong, Bill Remy, Pedro Pryor, Edd Locke, Russell Glenn.

Row 2: Mr. Dowler, Ray Enderle, Dick Fletcher, Chester Sprague, Bob Russ, Ed Chelski, Roger McBride, Mr. Walker.

Row 3: Mr. Kopcial, Walter Wilging, Norman Walker, Bob McLaughlin, Lloyd Rissler, Marty Keipp, Dick Fox, Tony Schag.

The "M" Association is an organization consisting exclusively of athletes that have won a letter in some major sport.

This year the "M" Association is selling pop corn and coca cola at the basketball games in an effort to raise funds for the purpose of purchasing each graduating letterman something such as a season ticket to next year's football games or a blanket or sweater or some other token to show appreciation for their time and sacrifices in helping advance athletics at Madison High School.

The "M" Association also is a sponsor of many social events. They also are represented in intra-mural competition. Their teams are consistently victorious and the sportsmanship they display is an example that underclassmen follow. Mr. Walker, our football coach, is the adviser of the "M" Association.

Row 3: Don Norris, Grant Milliron, Gene Kulka, Harold Stanley, Don Wilson, Woody Martin, Floyd Williams, Carroll Ackerman, Fred Aungst, Jack Wysong

Row 4: Coach Dowler, Raymond Welty, Furman Woodward, Don Sprague, Don Sheldon

This year the Reserve Football squad was made up entirely of Freshmen and Sophomores. Their season record as far as games won and lost could have been much better if it were not for the fact that a good many of Mr. Dowler's most promising boys were moved up to the varsity as soon as a need for their services arose.

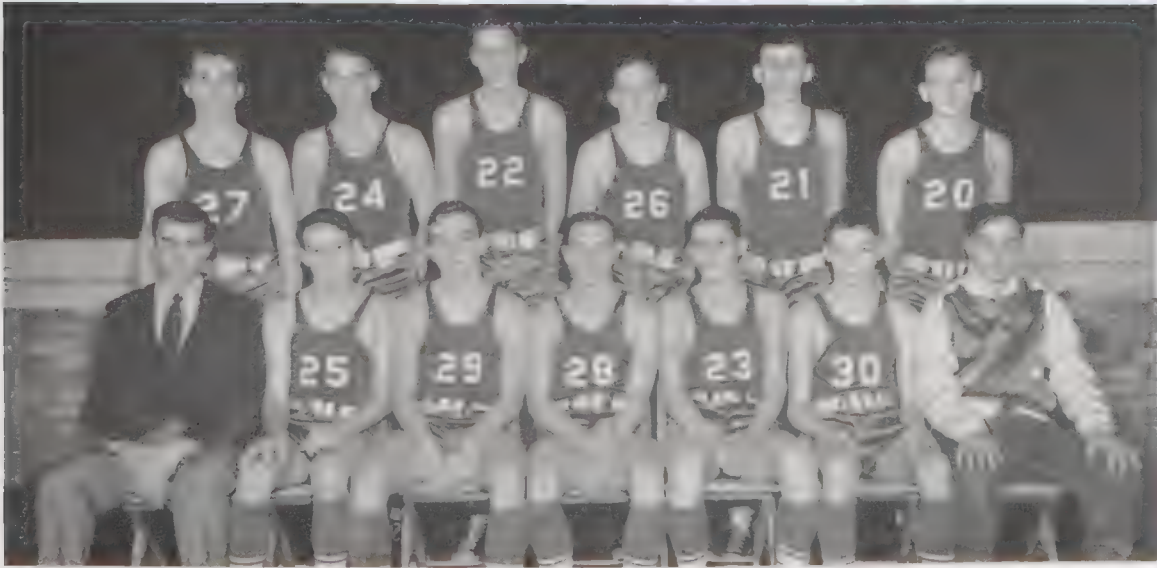

Despite the constantly shifting personnel of the reserve team, the team as a unit showed much promise and gave a good account of themselves on every game, and consistently showed improvement.

We expect to see these boys star on future Ram teams.

Varsity Basketball

RUSSELL GLENN

Russ was one of the two seniors on the varsity squad. He was elected honorary captain of the team. His point making ability, his coolness and quick thinking under fire were the chief attributes in an all around brilliant performance.

NORMAN HUGHES

Norm was the other senior on the varsity. Because of his good ball handling and knack of remaining cool and unexcited, his chief value to the team, was his steadying influence, which permitted the inexperienced to play a controlled style of ball.

MARTY KEIPP

Marty was the team's leading scorer. He will be back again next year for another year's competition. We will expect even a better performance in the coming year.

JERRY TALLENTIRE

Jerry was our 6' 4" center. In practically all the games he was able to control the backboards. We expect Jerry to become a high point man in his next two years at Madison.

LELAND STRANG

During the middle of the season "Whitey" was moved from the Reserves to the Varsity. Although he didn't control the rebounds, he was the real spark-plug of the team. Leland was also an effective scorer, finishing third despite his late start. We'll be looking forward to seeing Leland in action in the next two years.

DON WILSON

"Duck" has been the first freshman to make the varsity for quite some time. Despite a knee injury, which handicapped him at the beginning of the season, he improved considerably. We will expect "Duck" to develop into a real star.

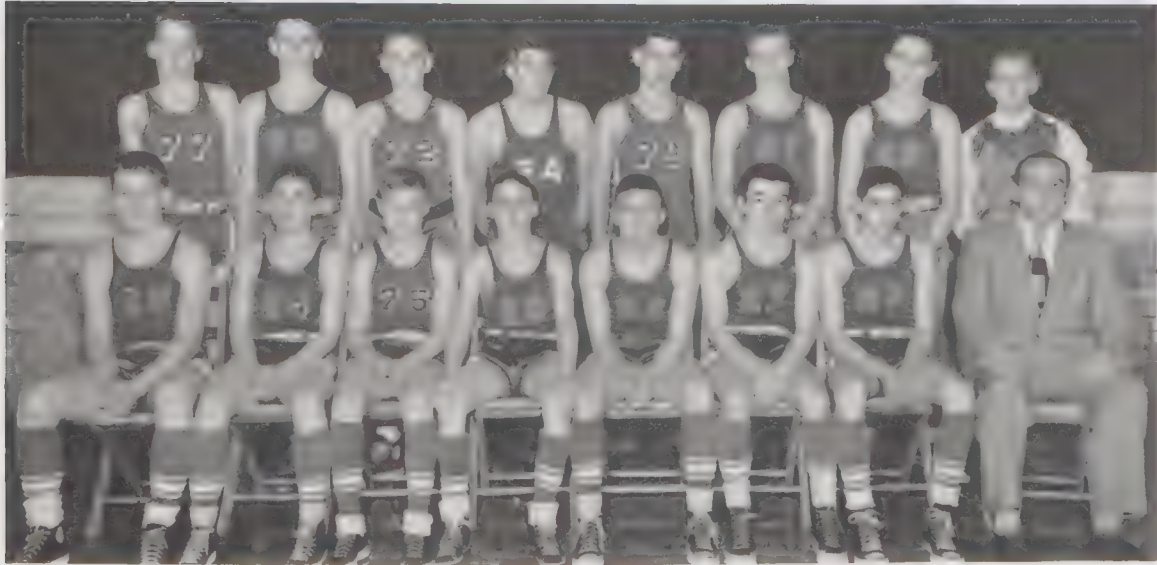

TOM KUDIKA

Tom was the other Junior that won himself a varsity letter. His chief contribution to the team was in giving Mr. Dowler a capable replacement. Tom should see considerably more action next year.

GERALD HAMMETT

Gerald was the diminutive senior who "fathered" the varsity. He carried out the thousand and one duties of a manager with zest and eagerness. Managers of this type are truly hard to replace and the returning players will indeed miss his services next year.

'48-'49 SCHEDULE AND RESULTS

Coach Blaine Dowler's baseball squad, although the first at Madison for many years, has proved very successful, winning 9 and losing 7 in this 1948-49 season. We hope sincerely, that Coach Dowler shall have one of the leading teams in this area, in future years.

The Rams scored 108 runs in 16 games, having an average of $6\frac{3}{4}$ runs per game. The team also showed their ability of snatching bases. They chalked up 86 stolen bases, over 5 per game.

The most spirited games of the season were the two with Mansfield Senior High, the students and faculty members all showed their enthusiasm by turning out at the games. The team also had a fair following when they traveled.

Varsity Baseball

FRED DURIG— .400-Fred played the outfield and some first base, but wherever it was he had a lot of spirit winning or losing. As shown by his batting percentage, he was a good batter, and even better base runner; he led in runs scored and bases stolen. Fred graduated last spring.

RAY BADER— .367-Dutch was the pitcher and co-captain of the squad. He won 6 and lost 4. Dutch sparked the team to victory, also playing outfield when given a rest from the strenuous pitching chores. Dutch graduated last spring.

JOE DISTL— .333-Joe was iron man at first base. Even though his ball glove looked ready to fall apart, he missed very few. He was always counted on for that greatly needed run. Joe also graduated last spring.

RUSS GLENN— .313-Russ playing outfield, got a late start in first string baseball, but raised that average quickly to help the team a good deal. He'll be here this year to spark the team of "49-50."

LARRY SECRIST— .297-Larry, although he was considerable small for a third baseman, he was the best in the surrounding area. He let very few grounders get past him, and many of his drives hit the fence. Larry was a senior last year.

ED CHELSKI— .250-Ed played the outfield and will be back again this year. He raised his batting average considerable by switching to the left side of the plate. We expect Ed to do us a lot of good next year.

NORM HUGHES— .244-Norm played shortstop for the squad. He improved rapidly all season. A fine defensive and offensive player and will be back again next year.

EUGENE RIBLET— .229-Eugene was a last minute converted catcher, and probably the best Dowler could have trained. There was very little stealing against Gene, and he really cut off the runners at base with expert ease. Gene was a senior.

JACK BOSH— .125-Jack graduated last year. He was an outfielder, and although his batting average wasn't high he was respected because of his ability to hit long drives. We'll miss him next year.

Girls Athletic Association

MRS. KISSEL

This is the fourth consecutive year that the destinies of the Girls Athletic Association were in the capable hands of Mrs. Kissel. As in the past the girls showed that they were attempting to live up to the high ideals of good sportsmanship instilled in them. We hope that the classes of the future will be as fortunate as we were in having Mrs. Kissel for their supervisor and we the Class of "50" wish her many more successful years.

Who are the four girls leading the Madison cheering section? Look at the pep they display, who are they? They are Shirley Frish, Shirley Bell, (Juniors) Janice McMullen, (Sophomore) and Donna Pearson (Freshman), of whom we are really proud.

The class of "50" wishes to congratulate these four girls for succeeding in making M.H.S. a school known for its good school spirit and sportsmanship.

A job well done. Keep up the good work girls!

Homecoming Queen and Attendants

Seated: Mary Jo Hunter, queen
Standing: Erma Keefer, Nancy Moore, Ann Dyson, Dorothy Sabo

Our Homecoming Queen and Attendants were elected by the student body.

During halftime, at the Bellville game, these girls really gave the football fans a real treat, sparkling with their beauty and poise.

They also inspired the team to win their first victory of the season.

May Queen and King

Dorothy Sabo and Russell Glenn, May king and queen reigned over Madison High's annual Lawn Fete of 1949.

They were elected by the student body, who used good choice in their selection.

As members of their court they had Josephine Ciraulo and Mary Banks (Seniors), Erma Keefer, Mary Jo Hunter (Juniors), Annabelle Kragick, Janet Hamilton (Sophomores), Kay Jesson, Shurlene Scheuer (Freshmen). These girls and the king and queen were very impressive in the ceremonies.

The class of "50" expresses best wishes to the May King and Queen and their court.

Compliments of Kafer's Flowers

Ramette Queen

Bonnie Mottayaw, Ramette Queen of "50" was the only girl eligible to hold this honor, which really proved that she deserved it.

Bonnie participated in all sports and was outstanding in all of them.

The G.A.A. awarded Bonnie with a white athletic sweater and a ram head in honor of the title she has now won.

Let's congratulate Bonnie, as Ramette Queen, a title which calls for hard work.

Elinor Blandi, Eloise Scheier, Beverly Hunt, Ann Dyson, Joyce Elliott, Tommy Ciraulo, Joyce Hettinger, Dorothy Sabo, Joan Harry, Nancy Moore, Bonnie Mottayaw.

The Honor Volleyball Squad consisted of 23 girls, of which eleven were seniors. We organized into two teams to play the volleyball teams of Mansfield Senior High School.

We had two victories and two defeats in our competition with them.

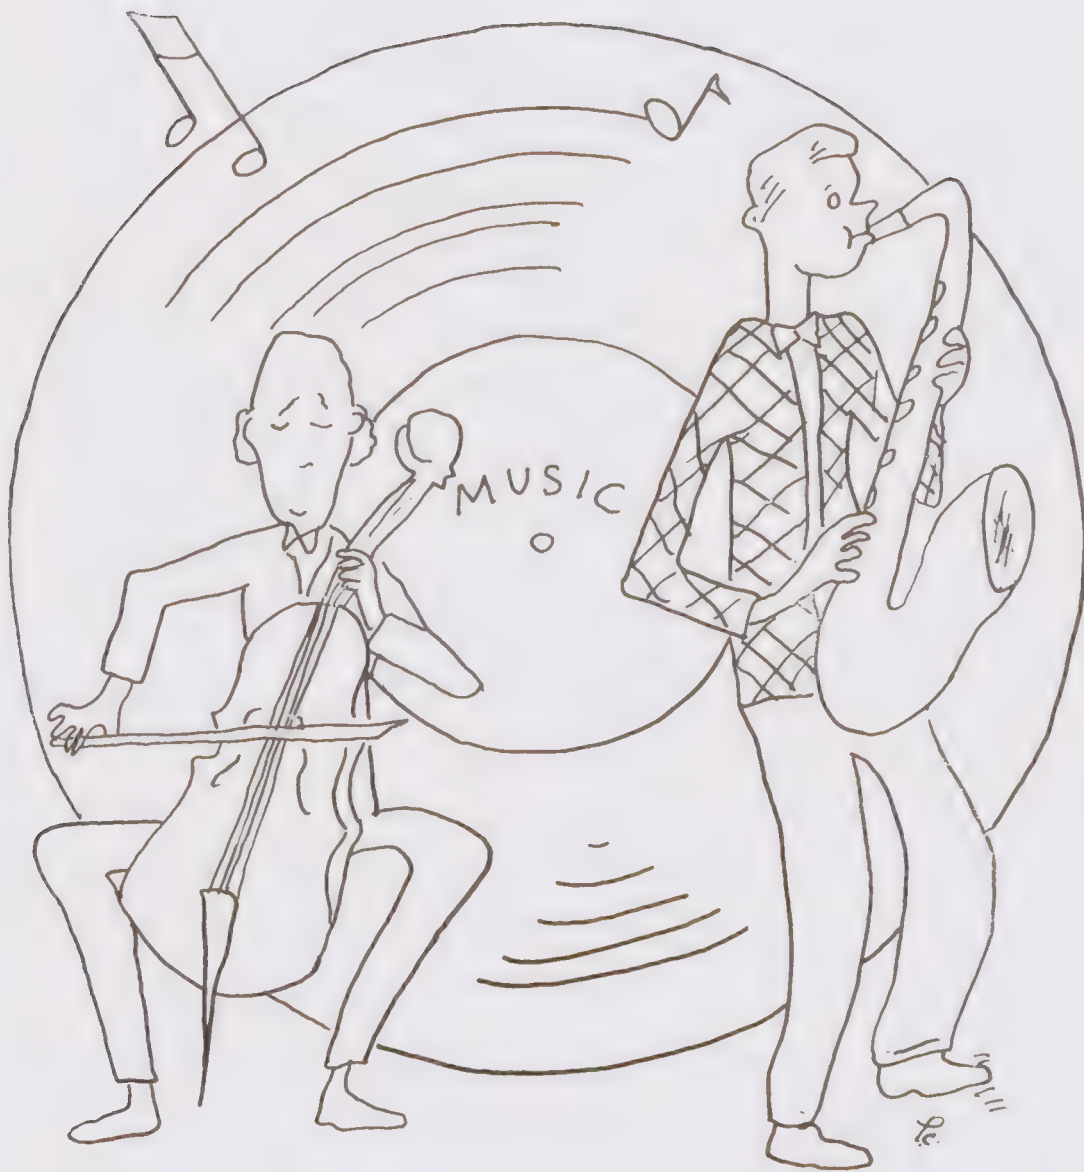

Our games have developed a very friendly spirit in our Girls Athletic Association.

Our class of "50" wishes the forthcoming teams lots of success and the best of luck.

He: That's a nice-looking chap you just spoke to. Is he a friend of yours?

She: Yes, indeed.

He: We'll ask him to join us.

She: Oh, this is so sudden. He's the new minister.

Connie S.: Has he proposed yet?

Donna U.: No. but he has that engagement ring in his voice.

Shay, offisher, wheresh corner?

You're standing on it.

'S no wonder I couldn't find it.

Tim: This match won't light.

Paul: What's the matter with it?

Tim: I don't know. It lit all right a minute ago.

Mrs. Kopcial: Dear, is my hat on straight?

Mr. Kopcial: Yes, now hurry, we're late already.

Mrs. Kopcial: I'm sorry, I'll have to go back, this sort of hat isn't supposed to be worn straight.

Vet: Give the cow two tablespoons of this medicine every day.

Stanley: But our cow has no tablespoon, she drinks out of a pail.
